NOTICE

CARGILL GLOBAL SCHOLARS PROGRAM

ATTENTION 1st YEAR UG STUDENTS: 1-MONTH LEFT TO SUBMIT APPLICATIONS FOR CARGILL GLOBAL SCHOLARS PROGRAM

(Application Deadline: March 10, 2022)

With around 1-month left to apply for the Cargill Global Scholars Program application, we encourage you to start your application and work towards early submission. The Cargill Global Scholars Program is a distinctive scholarship opportunity that provides financial support (up to US $5000) in addition to leadership development opportunities through seminars, networking events, and a mentorship program. For eligibility and application details visit: www.cargillglobalscholars.com/participating-countries/india-faqs.

To provide further context on this unique opportunity, we invite you to attend one of our virtual information sessions. The session will help you to get a full understanding of all that the program offers, ask any questions about the program and the application process and receive helpful tips on how to create a competitive application. You are strongly encouraged to attend an information session, if you have not done so already.

EXCLUSIVE INFO SESSION for LSR and HR College Students: In addition to general information sessions listed below, we have organized an information session exclusively for students of LSR and HR College on Thu, 17 Feb at 7:00 PM. To join, register at https://iie-org.zoom.us/webinar/register/WN_p5Tz7EP9R5G0M-pXvYZQNw.

You may also register for any other information session using the links below (content presented will be the same at each).
