

लेडी श्री राम कॉलेज फॉर वुमन
(दिल्ली विश्वविद्यालय)

Lady Shri Ram College For Women

(UNIVERSITY OF DELHI)
NAAC 'A' Accredited

Lady Shri Ram College for Women

University of Delhi

Supporting Documents for 7.1.9

Sensitization of students and employees of the Institution to the constitutional obligations: values, rights, duties and responsibilities of citizens.

The college made several efforts towards Sensitization of students and employees of the Institution to the constitutional obligations- values, rights, duties and responsibilities of citizens.

- LSR celebrated Kargil Vijay Diwas was celebrated through an online session by Colonel V.N. Thapar, the father of Captain Vijayant Thapar, a Kargil martyr and recipient of the Vir Chakra. Colonel Thapar shared readings from the biography titled “Vijayant at Kargil, The Life of a Kargil War Hero,” allowing the audience to understand the life of this great hero whose valor far surpassed the number of years he lived.

- NSS volunteers undertook the Har Ghar Tiranga Campaign, organizing community visits and a series of events including activities such as impromptu quizzes, engaging discussions, and performances including plays, with active participation from children. The volunteers of NSS-LSR visited The Hope Project Charitable Trust in Basti Hazrat Nizamuddin to raise awareness and feelings of patriotism in underprivileged communities, especially children. A discussion was held for the same wherein the children enthusiastically participated to converse about the importance and significance of the occasion. This was followed by the impromptu quiz where they were asked questions about the National symbols and our freedom fighters. The students also sang patriotic songs, danced, enacted a play that they would be performing on 15th August and the session ended with everyone paying homage to the country by singing the National Anthem together.

- On 8th August 2022, Volunteers from NSS-LSR celebrated independence day at the IIT Delhi branch of the NGO-Vidya. Students drew posters and wrote slogans to pay homage to the martyrs. Furthermore, they recited a poem that instilled a spirit of patriotism in everyone. A quiz was also held for them to spread awareness about the history of our country and the path towards independence. It was a highly informative and interactive session which was fruitful for the children as they learnt about the independence of India through fun activities and discussion.
- The Swachhta Pakhwada Campaign, a nationwide initiative to promote the significance of cleanliness and sanitation, elicited an array of events, including cleanliness drive, pledge-taking, documentary screenings, a waste management quiz, and a postermaking competition.
- The NSS annual art festival, Kala, took place on 15th September, offering a platform for children from beneficiary NGOs to showcase their creativity. The theme for Kala 2023 was “Kudrat aur Kala,” celebrating nature’s breathtaking power and the artistic expression of children. Events such as sponge painting, storytelling, and newspaper pen stand making engaged the children. The Dramatics Society presented a production on sustainability, which was well received by all.
- On the occasion of the 74th NCC Raising Day, some meritorious cadets got the opportunity to pay homage to our brave soldiers. The National War Memorial is a national memorial created to honour and remember Indian military personnel who participated in the wars that led to the country’s independence. CHM Mahima Yadav was the Wreath Bearer of Rear Admiral Puneet Chadha, VSM. CHM Mahima Yadav and JUO Megha Yadav got the prestigious opportunity to interact with the Defence Secretary of India, Shri. Giridhar Aramane. I.A.S. Rear Admiral Puneet Chadha and Defence Secretary Shri Giridhar Aramane attended the celebration for NWM '22 as the chief guests.

- On the occasion of National Women's Day, National Cadet Corps, Lady Shri Ram College for Women celebrated the birth anniversary of one of India's most influential politicians, feminist and civil rights activist – Sarojini Naidu. An impactful Nukkad Natak was performed on the busy lanes of Rajiv Chowk metro station, Connaught place as passersby stopped to see what the hustle-bustle was about. Cadets first held a rally in the open space, with posters and banners, while reciting the lines of a heartfelt poem. Through a short play the plight of thousands of girls around the country was showcased, as they are forced into marriage and subsequently, a life of obedience to harsh in-laws. The crowd cheered and clapped after the powerful performance as people expressed their views about the play. With loud voices and an even louder will to bring about freedom, equity and safety for women, the cadets of Lady Shri Ram College for Women made an attempt to change those orthodox views which stop women from reaching their potential. To honour the woman who became the voice of the common people, NCC LSR worked day in day out to produce a play that would help women realise that they are worth much more than the money their parents are forced to give as dowry.
- PROMISING DAY PARADE- On the occasion of the 75th Independence Day, Promising Day parade was organized by the National Cadet Corps, LSR on 15th August 2022 where newly enrolled cadets took an oath to commit themselves to the NCC, the country, and its citizens. The majority of college students and staff witnessed this event. The programme began with the arrival of Principal Prof. Suman Sharma escorted by pilots, along with ANO Dr. Sarika Kalra. The ceremony started with a squad of 30 cadets marching in front of the flag area where Dr. Suman Sharma, performed flag hoisting ceremony, followed by the national anthem. This led to the ceremony of oath taking, which is the most significant event of the promising day parade, the purpose of which is to instill in the cadets a sense of commitment towards the promotion and protection of their country.
- A session was held on 23rd February 2023 with Ms. Anjali Bharwdaj on the theme "Importance of right to information (RTI)" to create more awareness among students about the importance of Right to Information, a topic that has become more relevant now than ever.

